

ALIVIA BODDIE

CONSULTANT · STRATEGIST · COMMUNITY BUILDER

Strategy, program design, economic empowerment, and community-centered consulting.

Alivia Boddie is a strategist, program leader, consultant, and social-impact professional with 15+ years of nonprofit-sector experience. She helps mission-driven organizations move from big ideas to structured programs, strong partnerships, scalable systems, and measurable execution across entrepreneurship, community development, housing, and economic mobility.

15+

YEARS IN NONPROFIT

11

PROGRAMS LAUNCHED

185

CLIENTS SERVED

65

MENTORS RECRUITED

20+

TEAM LEADERSHIP

CORE CAPABILITIES

- Strategic planning & organizational development
- Program design, launch & implementation
- Entrepreneurship & small-business ecosystems
- Community and stakeholder engagement
- Economic empowerment & wealth-building initiatives
- Facilitation, training & cohort development
- Partnership, volunteer & mentor strategy
- Project leadership & cross-functional execution

SELECTED LEADERSHIP

- Founder, Community Empowered - founded a 501(c)(3) nonprofit focused on volunteer programs and economic development initiatives.
- Founder & CEO, Prosperity Link - advancing homeownership readiness, economic empowerment, and pathways to generational wealth.
- Entrepreneurship program leadership - built mentor networks, learning experiences, partnerships, and growth-focused programming for entrepreneurs.
- Board & civic leadership - service across Twin Cities organizations focused on social equity, volunteer engagement, real estate equity, and economic empowerment.
- Founder, BIPOC Entrepreneur Day - created a platform elevating the visibility and economic contributions of BIPOC entrepreneurs.

BOARD & PUBLIC LEADERSHIP

- MAVA - Minnesota Alliance for Volunteer Advancement - Board Member, Public Policy; Vice Chair, DEI Committee.
- Partnership in Property Commercial Land Trust (PIPCLT) - Board Member supporting equitable commercial property ownership.
- 2026 MAVA Conference Presenter - led a 70-minute session on building volunteer movements rooted in belonging, shared ownership, and leadership.

BUILD STRONGER PROGRAMS. CLARIFY STRATEGY.
EXPAND COMMUNITY IMPACT.

EDUCATION & CREDENTIALS

St. Mary's University School of Law

Graduate legal studies in the American legal system, contracts, legal research, and legal writing.

University of Wisconsin-Stout

B.S., Applied Social Science
B.S., Interdisciplinary Studies

Ashworth College

Associate Degree, Social Sciences & Substance Abuse

Harvard Business School Online

Leadership Principles Certificate

DIFFERENTIATORS

Alivia combines community-rooted leadership, entrepreneurial thinking, program management, board governance, and emerging legal knowledge. Her experience spans founding organizations, leading teams, building mentor networks, serving on boards, facilitating learning experiences, and taking initiatives from concept through execution.

IDEAL ENGAGEMENTS

- Nonprofit and foundation strategy
- Fractional program leadership
- Program design and implementation
- Entrepreneurship initiatives
- Community engagement and facilitation
- Economic empowerment strategy
- Organizational growth and partnerships

AVAILABLE FOR
Project-based consulting · Fractional leadership ·
Strategic initiatives · Facilitation · Program development · Longer-term consulting engagements